“First and foremost I put my trust in The Lord. With that as the foundation of my life, I have hope, and with hope we can have peace even in troubled times.”

“I have been interested in politics for some time. I think politicians have forgotten the art of servitude. It is my goal to serve the residents of Taylorsville giving them a voice in the future of our town. We have a great opportunity to grow and improve our downtown area, drawing businesses here. We have a lot of work to do but we can get there.”
